

Tom Harpool Horticulture Scholarship Application

This scholarship was initially created by the Denton County Master Gardener Association (DCMGA) to further the love of gardening by enabling a student of a horticultural related major to complete their education. The DCMGA chose to honor Tom Harpool for his service to the community and his contribution to gardening.

Administration

General administration of the Tom Harpool Horticulture Scholarship is under the direction of the Denton County Master Gardener Association Scholarship Committee. The committee will screen all applications and select the recipient. All applicants will be notified in June whether or not they were selected as a scholarship recipient.

Allocation

The amount of $1000 will be allocated for one (1) student. The award will be paid at $500.00 per semester payable to the college. *
